Abstracts - Poster Presentations

The IOC World Conference on Prevention of Injury & Illness in Sport will include poster sessions and free communications. This second call for abstracts is open only for poster presentations. The Conference is multidisciplinary, and we encourage abstracts to be submitted within all fields of prevention research. This includes studies on epidemiology, risk factors, injury mechanisms, pathophysiology, intervention studies, relevant biomechanical studies, studies on sports behavior and attitudes, and related research.

Submit your abstract and register online:
